Students may choose not to attend classes or write examinations on holy days of their religion, but they must notify their instructors at least two weeks in advance. Instructors will then provide opportunity for students to make up work examinations without penalty. A list of religious holidays can be found at <http://uwinnipeg.ca/academics/calendar/docs/important-notes.pdf>

Students with documented disabilities, temporary or chronic medical conditions, requiring academic accommodations for tests/exams (e.g., private space) or during lectures/laboratories (e.g., note-takers) are encouraged to contact Accessibility Services (AS) at 786-9771 or accessibilityservices@uwinnipeg.ca to discuss appropriate options. All information about a student's disability or medical condition remains confidential. <http://www.uwinnipeg.ca/accessibility>

Additional materials related to this course will be available on Nexus. Students are expected to log on to Nexus to access lecture PowerPoints, assignments and additional readings. If you are having difficulties with Nexus see the information available at: <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/student-learning-technologies/contact-nexus-support.html>

The University of Winnipeg provides comprehensive general and specialized counselling and health services to all students for free at the Wellness Centre, located on the first floor of Duckworth Centre (1D25). For more information see <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/student-wellness/>

In the event of an emergency, please dial police at 911 or campus security at 204-786-6666 for help. Everyone is urged to download UW Safe, our campus safety app for mobile devices (through the Apple or Google Play app store). It has emergency contact numbers ready to go with one click. It also contains a "friend walk" option that allows you to be visible in real time as you walk to a destination. SafeRide and SafeWalk programs are also available to everyone on campus including evening hours.

You must formally withdrawal from a course. If you simply stop going to classes, you may receive an "F" on your transcript and loss of tuition credit. The final date to withdraw from the course without academic penalty is March 15. Please refer to the Undergraduate Academic Calendar for Voluntary withdrawal procedures.

Students who plan to conduct research interviews, focus groups, surveys, or any other method of collecting data from any person, even a family member, must obtain the approval of the UHREB before commencing data collection. Exceptions are research activities in class as a learning exercise. See <https://www.uwinnipeg.ca/research/ethics/human-ethics.html> for submission requirements and deadlines.

1. cite a generative AI tool whenever you paraphrase, quote, or incorporate into your own work any content (whether text, image, data, or other) that was created by it
2. acknowledge all functional uses of the tool (like editing your prose or translating words) in a note, your text, or another suitable location
3. take care to vet the secondary sources it cites"

If students aren't sure whether or not they can use AI tools, they should ask their professors.
